“ Amy, Mark & Ann, Bret & Angie, and Grandkids, I know I am not telling you anything you do not already know. Carlos, a husband, father, and grandfather was inarguably, one of a kind. God broke the mold with Carlos. His sense of humor, competitive spirit, athletic ability, and easy friendship will be missed. He was what we called in the Army, “One of the old breed.” His sense of fair play, honesty, integrity, and acceptance of responsibility are without peer. He will be dearly missed, but I know that he is already asking Saint Peter directions to the golf course up there. If I know Carlos, he is also inquiring of those around him, “Any of you folks play pool?” I will miss you buddy. We will take care of Amy, so rest easy good friend.

Carlos had that rare ability to make everyone feel special. From the time I was about 8 years old (a long long time ago) he was a special friend. I always felt like he was happy to see us. It was fun just to stop and vist Carlos and Amy because they both made us feel welcome and part of their family..

“ Amy and family,

We are so sorry to hear about Carlos. He was such a special man. So strong and energetic. I am so sorry we did not know about visiting hours today, Friday. Also, we cannot attend Sabbath morning because of course I have to play for church. Again, so sorry. You both are so special. May God be with you through this time of pain.

Fondly

“ To the Dennis Family,

I first met Carlos while and when we were both foremen in production at Marion Power Shovel. He was a very conscientious and detailed guy wanting his men's work done right and on time. I ran into Carlos again some years later playing golf with friends at Oakhaven Golf Course in Delaware, Ohio. We played probably 8 years together. Carlos was very skilled and always a very competitive person. As he grew older and couldn't hit the distances he had hit earlier in life it bothered him a lot because he was such a great competitor. However, his short game and accuracy was still very much alive. He also was good at sharing some of his vegetables and sweet corn with other golfers.

I will and our golfing community will truly miss his being there on the course but he will live on with us in our hearts.

Thank you,

“ Although our acquaintance with Carlos was relatively brief, in that short time he won a special place in our hearts. His cordial demeanor, his sense of humor, his love for the land and garden, and the unconditional friendship he extended, are all qualities that will remain in our hearts. We will have to wait until our Lord Jesus returns to resume our friendship. Until then, rest in peace, Carlos. Our deepest condolences to Amy and the rest of the family. May God surround you with his comforting presence.

“ Dear Dennis Family, We mourn the loss of our neighbor, Carlos. We will miss his humor, his kindness and his zest for life. There was always a twinkle in his eye and a thoughtful comment when we saw him on his farm equipment or just touring Bowtown Rd. We will miss him dearly but will remember him as an exemplar of a life well lived. Susan Fisher
